

3/16, 10/16, 11/16
15 9/19/2000

... his wife, Dr. Usna
Deshpande, son Dr. Rajesh and daughter.

Nagpur Range Police Sports meet inaugurated

DISTRICT CORRESPONDENT

CHANDRAPUR, Oct. 17:- The Nagpur Range Police Sports Meet-2000 was inaugurated at the hands of Arun Bongirwar, Chief Secretary of State here the other day in a grand ceremony. M. R. Patil, Additional Chief Secretary (Home) of State presided over the function.

Arun Bongirwar expressed pleasure to attend police sports meet and urged Gondia team to participate fully and do best though their district is a new one. He said that the police department should produce players to the quality of Arjuna Awards and Chhatrapati Awards. He then urged the players to give in their best in the tournament and greeted all.

In his speech, Patil said that Police Deptt. handles the important responsibility of maintenance of peace and order in State quite successfully.

Now, to train police personnel to handle increasing percentage of crime due to industrial growth, the State Govt. has made an arrangement of new training from this year.

(Contd on page 3)

Chief Secretary Arun Bongirwar inaugurating the sports meet by lighting the torch.

Nagpur Range Police Sports meet inaugurated

(Contd from page 1)

The Govt. has fixed the educational eligibility for Police Sepoy to be 12th pass. Also, Govt. has increased the posts. Now, in each district Additional Superintendent of Police and Deputy Superintendent of Police. and police posts are created so that Police Department can handle increasing crime effectively.

Patil quoted the police sports meet useful in increasing the morale of police to serve the people.

The guests were welcomed by Police Range with a welcome tune. The band squad also delivered guard of honour to chief guest and the players from Chandrapur, Gadchiroli, Wardha, Bhandara, Nagpur (Rural), Gondia presented a disciplined march pass.

Special Inspector General of Police, P.K.B. Chakraborty delivered introductory remarks in which he said that Range Sports meet is a linking bond between district level and State level meet.

He informed that in first week of November, State level sports meet will take place at Pune.

He thanked M.R. Patil and Arun Bongirwar for attending the ceremony.

The best athlete of last year Tejram Janja and Vijayanti Shambharkar brought sports torch in the ground and handed over to chief guest who lit the sports lights.

Later reserved PI Mate delivered oath of fair play and sportsmanship to be exhibited in the tournament.

DSP Jagan Nath proposed a vote of thanks.

J.P. Gupta, District Collector, Wardha Superintendent of Police B.J. Kangale, Nagpur (Rural) SP Sunil Ramanand, Gondia SP Dr. Sukhbir Singh and many others attended the inaugural ceremony.